Paper Dolls is a serviceable sequel that has some good points (and I especially liked the last 10%), but it is also considerably less impressive than the first book. The Actual rating closer to 2.5 stars

Paper Dolls (Dark Carousel, #2) by Anya Allyn

The book is not without its emotional challenges, and my youngest in particular was a bit upset when the paper dolls were destroyed. Although the dolls' destruction was a shock, it does teach young children about loss, how ultimately nothing lasts forever and how all things change which is a valuable life lesson to take away.
